

Pack Your Bags!

Background: What does it take to prepare for an expedition to the Weddell Sea? Let's ask Tim Job, Reach the World's Education Outreach Coordinator on the Endurance22 Expedition. Planning an expedition of this scale requires a massive amount of planning and. Watch Tim's preparation for this once-in-a-lifetime adventure here.

Your Assignment: Imagine you are traveling to Antarctica's Weddell Sea as part of the Endurance22 expedition. How would you prepare for the expedition? What would be the biggest challenges? What are you hoping/expecting to find? What supplies would you need to pack with you for a successful trip? Your multi-paragraph response should be at least one page in length and contain some basic information about the location you are visiting, along with evidence that you have conducted research on the topic.
