Jobs on a Ship Adventure on the High Seas

Directions: Read Tim's article, "Jobs on a Polar Research Vessel." Choose one of the jobs Tim writes about and research it. Take notes on your research, then write a profile on the job you choose.

Here are some questions to consider in your research:

- What are the job's most interesting parts?
- Are there challenges that come with this job?
- What would a typical day look like with this job?
